“Stay in your choice of an old sea captain’s home or a quaint hotel that has nearly 200 years of lodging history. Located in the heart of Port Clyde, both just a short walk from the Monhegan Boat Line and Port Clyde General Store.”

Tenants Harbor (2.5 miles from Port Clyde Village):

The East Wind Inn: <http://www.eastwindinn.com/>

“The East Wind inhabits a scenic haven at water’s edge free from busy tourist traffic, providing Downeast lodging and accommodations that will inspire serenity during your stay.”

Mill Pond House: <http://millpondhouse.com/>

“Situated in the hamlet of Martinsville, between the two picturesque coastal villages of Tenants Harbor and Port Clyde in the heart of the “Country of the Pointed Firs”, this C.1860 farmhouse overlooks the scenic beauty of one of Maine’s many harbors.”

St. George (9 miles from Port Clyde Village):

The Humble Farmer B & B: <http://thehumblefarmer.com/BaB.html>

“We think you’ll find The humble Farmer Bed and Breakfast to be an unforgettable cultural experience and not just an inexpensive place to spend the night.”

Spruce Head (11 miles from Port Clyde Village):

The Caignair Inn: <http://caignair.com/>

“Set on a granite ledge rising from the sea and surrounded by flower gardens, caignair was built in 1928 to house workers from the nearby quarries.”

South Thomaston (14.5 miles from Port Clyde Village):

Weskeag Inn: <http://www.weskeag.com/>

“Built in the 1830’s and filled with antiques, Weskeag Inn has a very romantic charm. “
